DIVINE SEXUALITY

Pathwork Helpers are invited to join us for a spacious week of exploring the topic of Divine Sexuality with Sagewalker of Pathwork Canada/Toronto.

Sage began developing the Divine Sexuality material, based on the Guide's teachings, over 30 years ago. Now, combining her many years of studying the lectures, including the Guide's teachings on evil, and her work with individuals, groups, and couples, she offers these deepened and ripened teachings. They invite us to uncover what is hidden and remains immature and therefore confounding to our soul's fulfillment.

Dates:

Thursday, July 20th, 9:00 am –
Wednesday, July 26th, 1:00 pm
(lunch included)

Location:

Pendle Hill, a Quaker Retreat Center in Philadelphia, PA; Accessible by car, plane (Philadelphia International Airport) and train (Philadelphia 30th Street Station). Staying at Pendle Hill is a retreat experience in itself; the rooms are quiet, you can explore 23 beautiful acres of woodland trails, and all meals are consciously prepared using local and organic ingredients.

Cost:

Course fee: $755; Room and board for 6 nights 7/20 - 7/26: single room $662.50; double room $542.50; option to have dinner ($13.75) and stay Wednesday night 7/19 at either single room rate $85 or double room rate $65; all bathrooms are shared; commuting option is also available (only course fee would apply plus any meals).

To Register:

Please contact Amy Rhett at adpathwork@gmail.com or 609-577-6336. Space is limited and we expect this program to fill quickly. Registration closes Feb. 1. A registration form will be sent to you.

This week promises to be a wonderful opportunity to learn firsthand from Sage as well as from each other. Creating a safe and sacred container, we will explore various aspects of sexuality and human relationship through the teaching's magnifying and symbolic lens. We will apply this both personally and to those workers we support.

Please note: For those who are interested, there will be an option to continue to study in a monthly, online format with Sage throughout 2017-2018, and return to the Institute for an in-person closing weekend in the summer of 2018.
